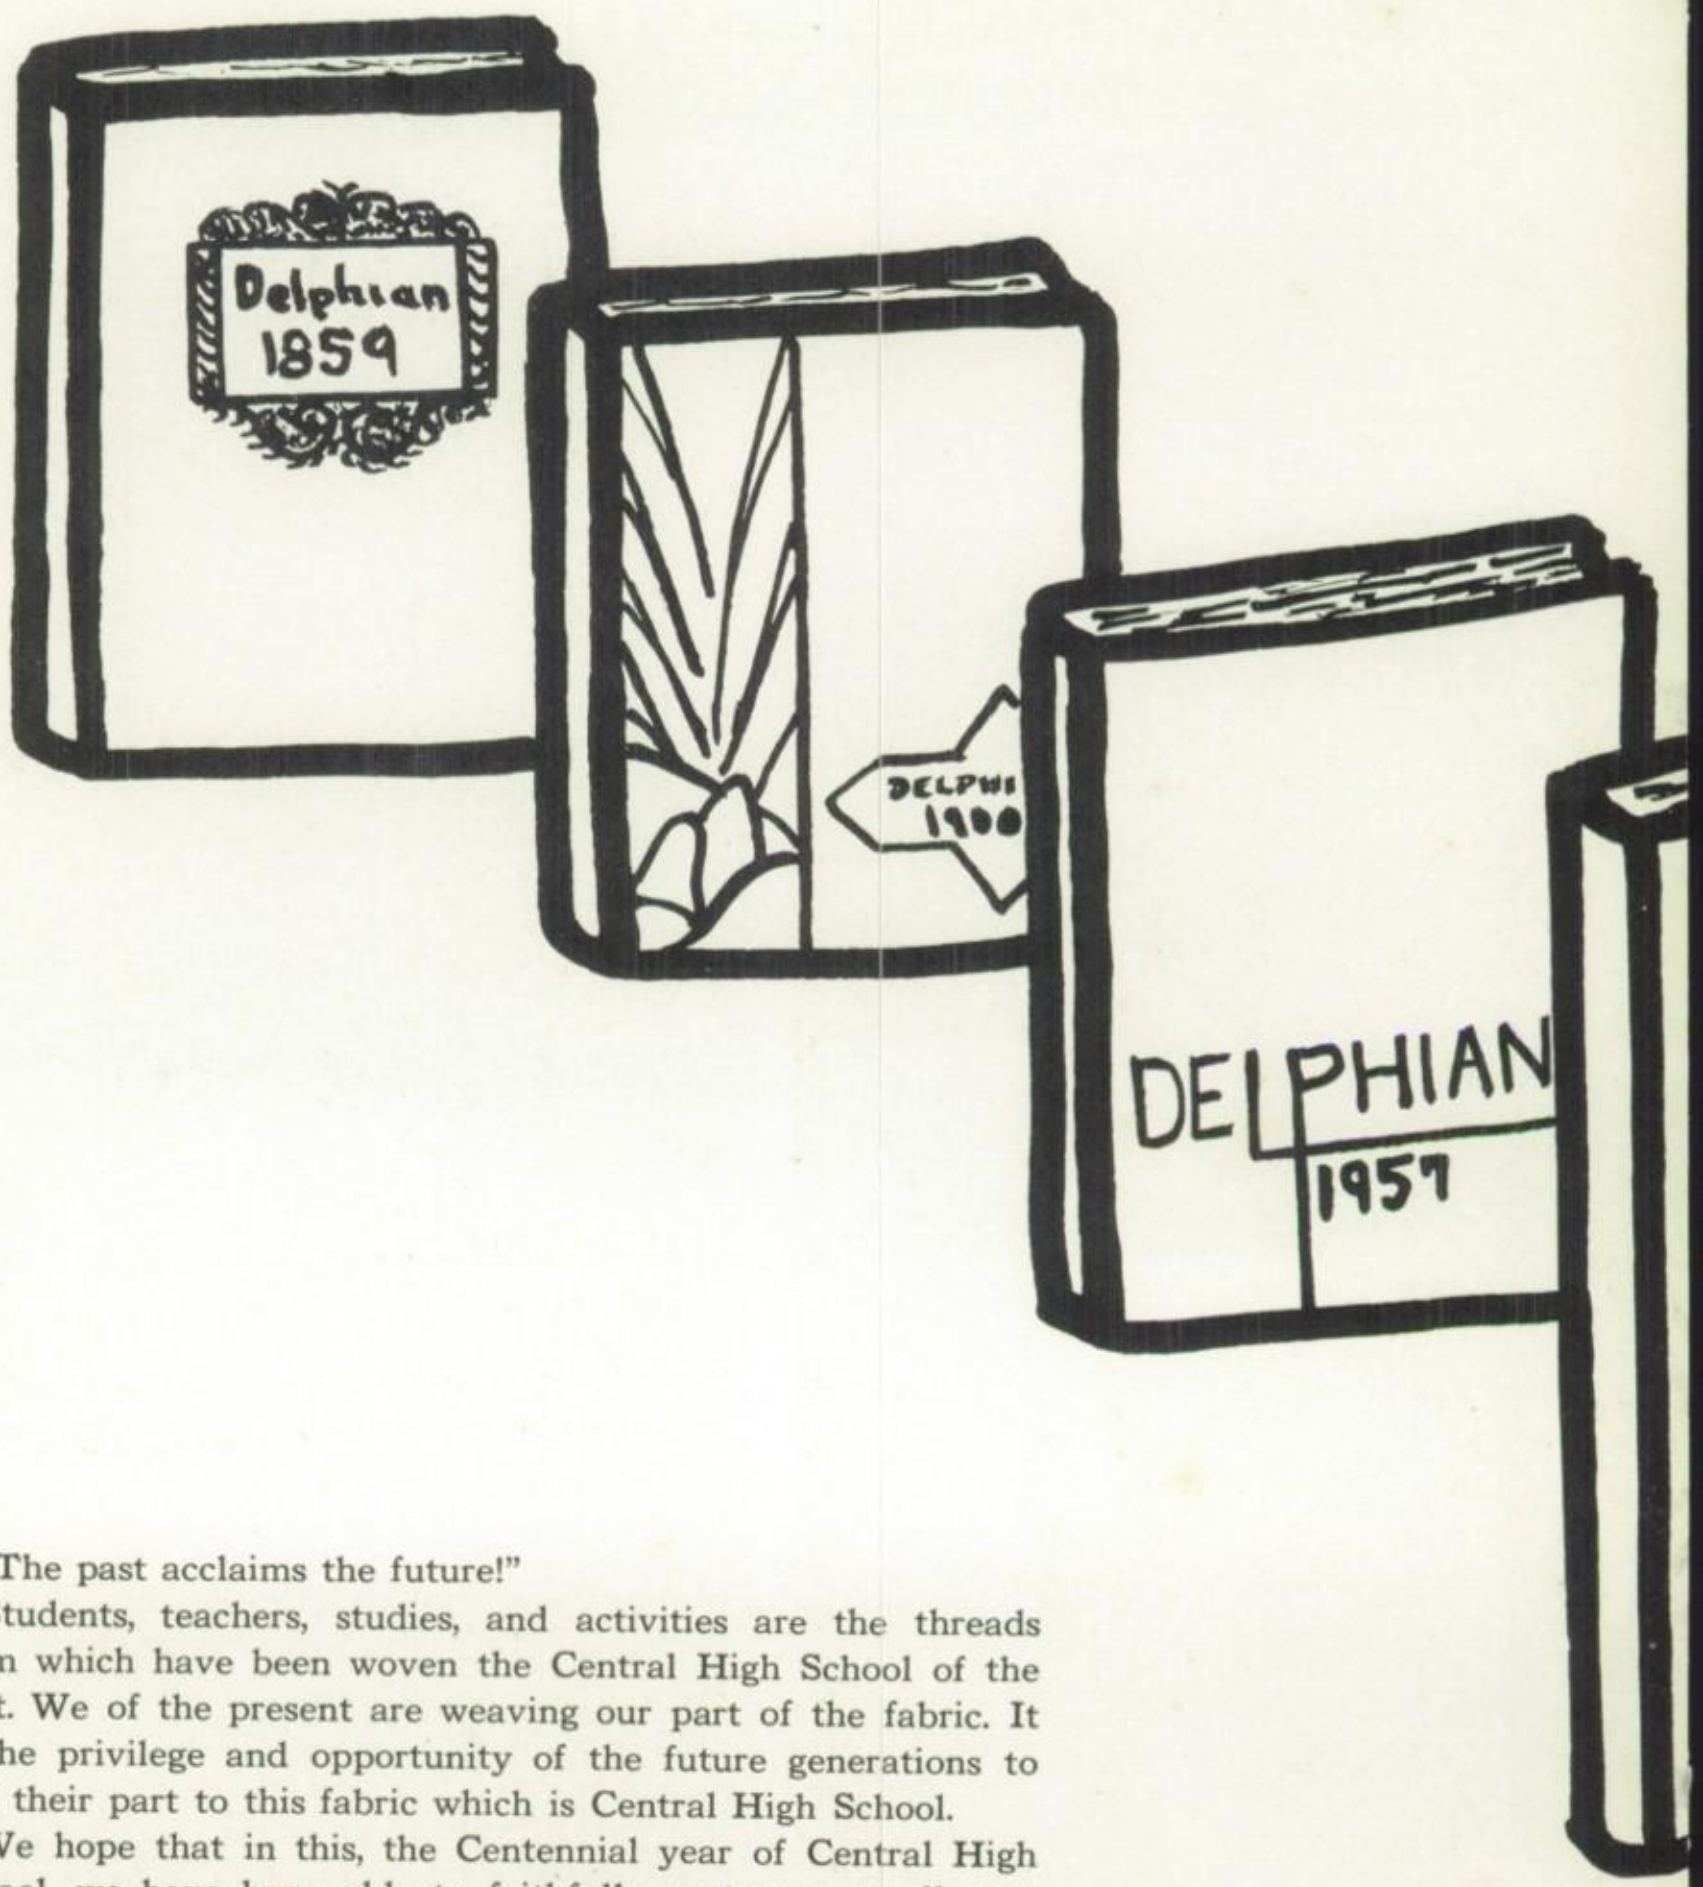
Central High School, Kalamazoo, Michigan



"The past acclaims the future!"

Students, teachers, studies, and activities are the threads from which have been woven the Central High School of the past. We of the present are weaving our part of the fabric. It is the privilege and opportunity of the future generations to add their part to this fabric which is Central High School.

We hope that in this, the Centennial year of Central High School, we have been able to faithfully portray a small part of Central's past as well as our days at Central which is the present. It will be for future generations to judge how well we have fulfilled our purpose and to portray, for their day, life at Central as they see it.

RETROSPECTION

In looking back over the first century of secondary education in Kalamazoo, we must be ever mindful of all the threads which have gone into the fabrics.

Within the pages of this Delphian, we have been limited in the amount we can portray. We will show you some of the outstanding developments in the field of education, the buildings which have housed public secondary education in Kalamazoo, and some of the events within the community which have made their mark on education.

We might be inclined to see only these outstanding events. In looking at the fabric as a whole, we realize that into its background have also been woven many events of lesser importance. The fabric is what it is because of the interplay of all events and because of the devotion of innumerable townspeople, faculty, and students who together have given us the Central High School of today.

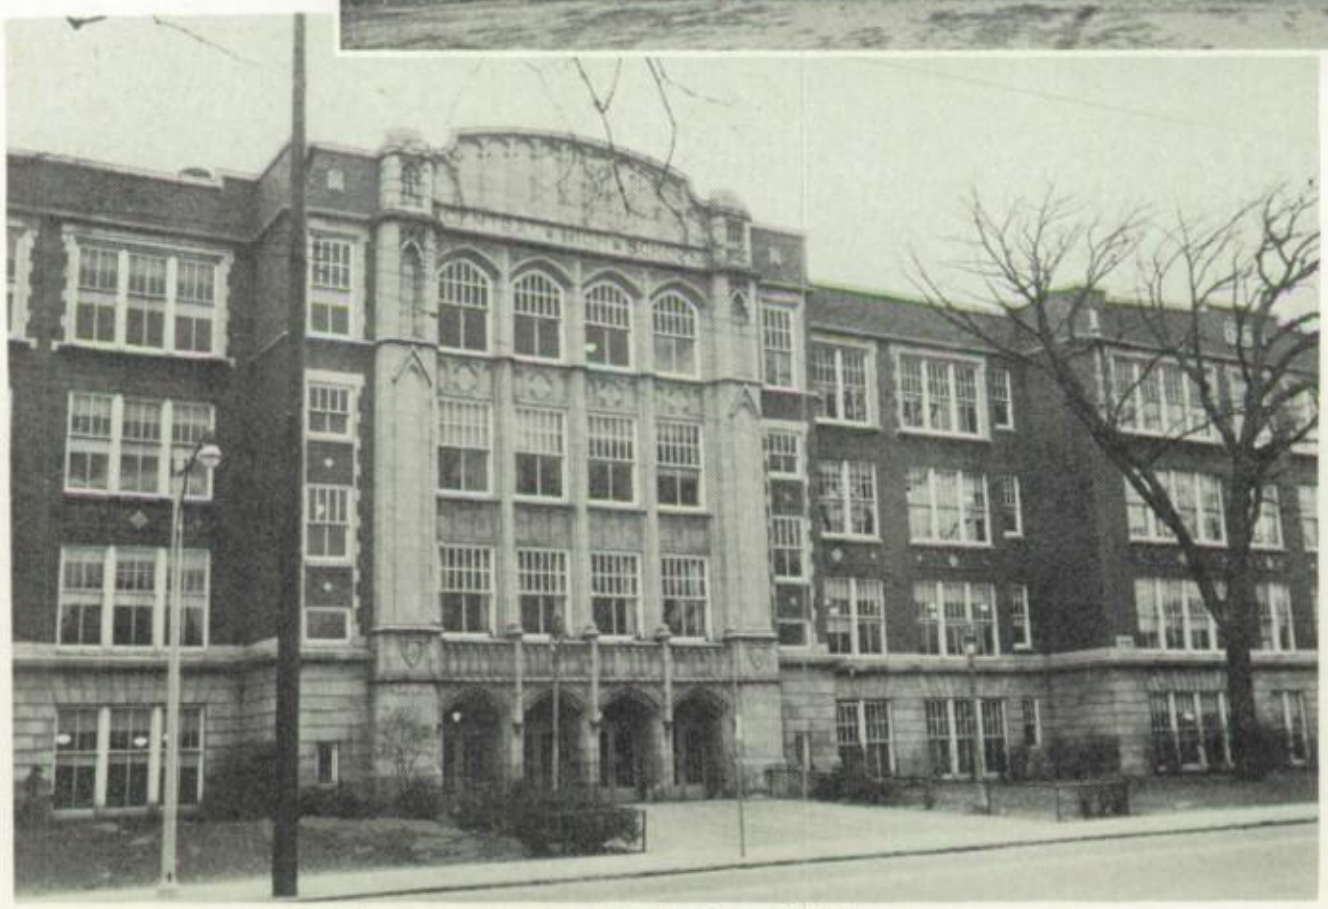
To the future of secondary education we dedicate this, the 1959 Delphian.

A new century will bring new opportunities and new challenges. In the immediate future we look to the opening of a second senior high school with many fine new facilities. We know that enrollment will increase at a more rapid pace than in the past century. Changes of an economic nature in our community challenge the school to give the best preparation possible to all students. These and other changes which we cannot foresee will face secondary education in the new century.

This new century will bring its share of fine faculty, students, and townspeople, and we have faith that they will carry on the traditions which have been established, and begin new traditions to hand on to future generations to insure that a bright future lies ahead. To this future we dedicate our yearbook.

The "Old Union," Kalamazoo's first public high school, was dedicated and fully opened January 7, 1859. High school classes were held on the third floor. The "Old Union" was torn down shortly after 1880 because of rumors that the building was unsafe and of faulty construction. An earthquake and the attitude of the students helped carry along the alarm program.

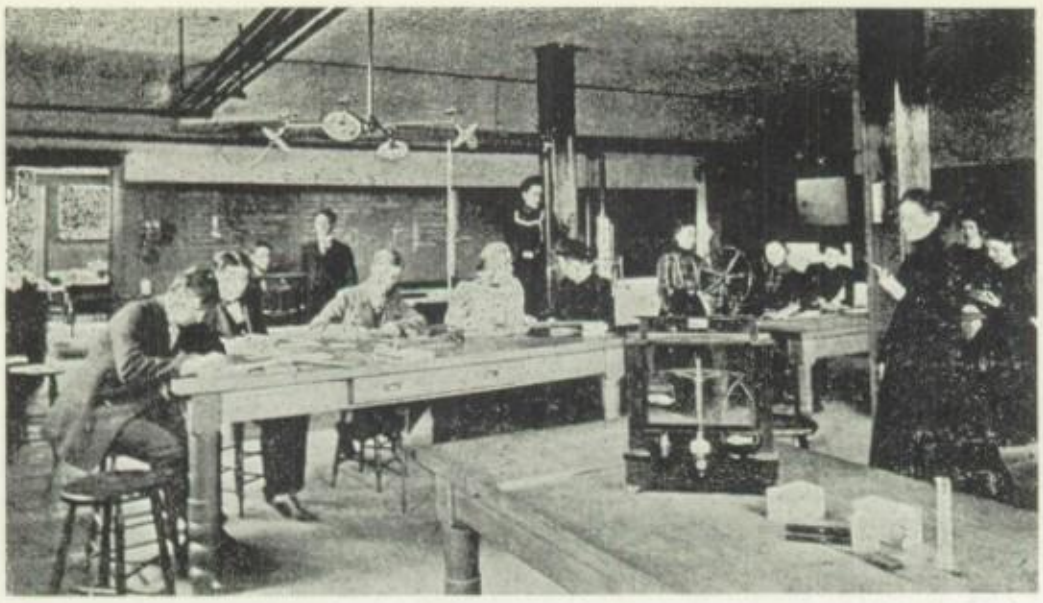
The second high school was erected in 1881 as a result of the condemnation of the "Old Union" the previous year. It burned to the ground February 1, 1897, and classes were held at the Y.M.C.A. until further classrooms could be secured. In 1898 the classes were moved into a third building.



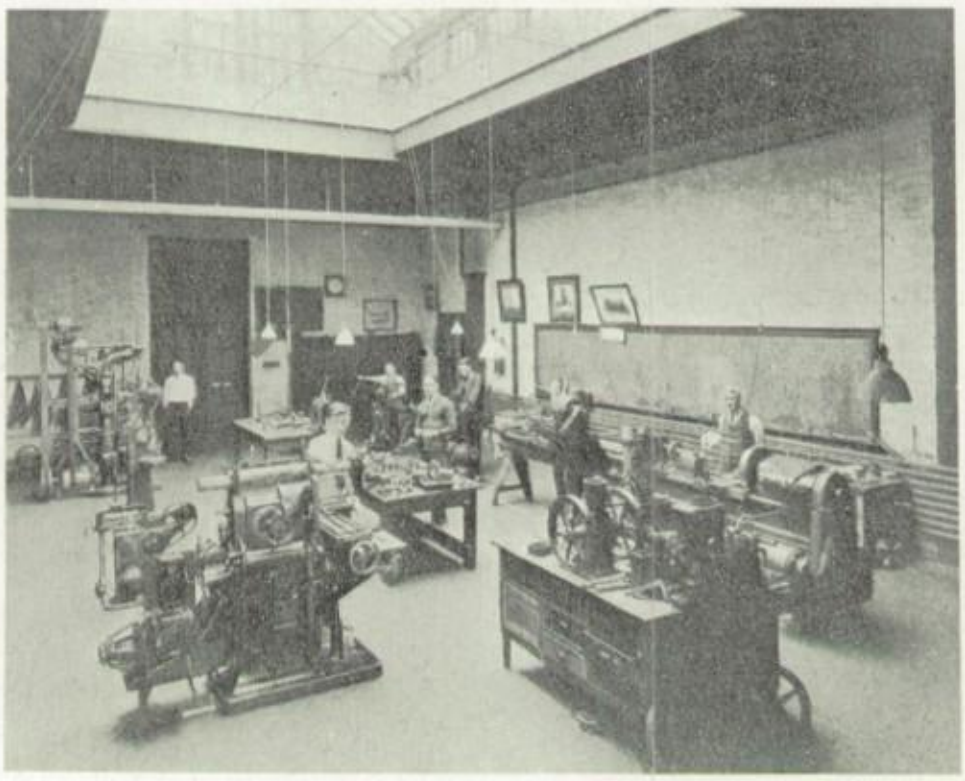
The present Central, which was dedicated in October, 1924, contained the newest and finest equipment and a magnificent auditorium.

This is the picture of the Class of 1859. Those included are: Molly Rooney, Charles Day, Miss Genevieve Babcock, Walter Henshaw, Annie D. Clarke, Superintendent Henry French, Miss Anna Cobb, Professor Richards, Miss Florence Buck, Charles Hairscomb, Miss Harriet Winslow, Elizabeth Hare, Dwight Randall, Arie Binkhorst, Maude Barrett, Ida Nason, Charles Andrus, Annie Thompson, Belle Nicholson, Jack McAlpine, Lillie Phelps, Lillie Griffin, Mollie Law, Ina , Mary Burns, Myra Prentice, Frank Gwick, Jennie Macomber, Jack French, Jessie Beardsley, Leon Groesbeck, Dispermette, Laura Pratt, Georgia Kent, Kate Shea, Cam Burns, Mary Gage, Florence Carpenter.

The faculty of 1918



There was little apparatus and no laboratory for the chemistry and physics classes in 1876; and as a result, spelling and writing were emphasized.



Kalamazoo was the first city in the state to establish manual training into the school curriculum by direct vote in 1899. It has gradually been changing to vocational or industrial courses.

The Household Arts department, established about 1902, was divided into three sections (1922): Textiles and Clothing, Foods and Cookery, and Household Management. It often prepared food for use in the lunch room operated under direct supervision of this department.

Central's Student Council was begun in 1919 to establish and carry on the beginnings of a Student-Cooperative Government. It consisted of a Student Council composed of a president and one elected representative from each high school class and society. The work was carried out by committees appointed from the student body by the Council. This Council was in charge of study halls, the halls during the noon hour, and the prevention of stealing from wardrobes during school hours.

The first issue of the "News" came out in December, 1916. This is the staff of 1919. Included in the picture are Kenneth Butler, Fred VanZandt, Milton Barrett, Clarence Ramsdell, Carl Norcross, Buster Wilbur, Arthur Shackelton, Marston Balch, Louise Stein, Garnet Davis, Milford Jones, Virginia Ralston, Mary Ellen Read, Thomas Parker, Vern Bunnell, Wilson Barrett, Edwin Noble, Francis Henshaw, Paul Taylor.

Kalamazoo Central's band, begun in 1906, was the only one in existence in a Michigan high school until 1908. Included in the 1922 band were: Cornets—Dick Paulson, Earl Boodt, Lee Conner, Lloyd Shaw; trombones—Wally Pennels, Herbert Cheslek, Fred LaCrone, Kenneth Carney; clarinets—Jacob Meyer, Floyd Boys; saxophones — Gorden VanderBeek, Wayne Smith, Alexander Barringer; alto—Gordon Smith; baritones—Charles Sanford; bass—Edwin Gemrich, Mervin Draper, Ward Sanford; drums—Glen Burkenstock, Duane Yates, Edward Burroughs.

The Radio Club was begun in 1921 to study the principals involved in radio transmission and for practical experience in operating a set. In 1922 the club included: Lela Barron, Lucille Bates, John Benedict, Donald Black, Charles Bock, Harold Buttery, Donald Campbell, Ledlie DeBow, Donald Dickinson, Donald Doubleday, Darold Eagelton, Edwin Fox, Edwin Gemrich, Bruce Goldsmith, Blanche Grandbois, Morlon Grandbois, Fred Greene, John Henshaw, Alvin Little, Miles McKinney, James McLaughlin, Mark Putney, Donna Rankin, Paul Rickman, Simeon Rosenbaum, John Shakespeare, Frederick Shillito, Marjorie Spaulding. Edward VanPeenen, John Waldo, James Wise.

An Anti-Bolshevists society was formed in 1920 because it was thought that a group of "Reds" was trying to overthrow the school government. This organization was formed not only for the uplift of the members, but also for the betterment of Central High School in all ways, The society supported every school event of the year. Many clubs and societies such as the Anti-Bolshevists were organized to study places of interest in the United States, to promote good scholarship, to promote good fellowship, to cultivate literary tastes, and to encourage freedom in discussion.

Central's first football game was against Battle Creek on Thanksgiving Day, 1893, at Kalamazoo. The game, played in a snow-storm on the Vine playground, ended in a 0-0 tie and resembled rugby more closely than the present-day football game. Those included on the 1918 team were: Back row: Hinga, Linihan, Vermulen, Miller, P.S. Moore, Berry, Wilkins, Shickelton.

Basketball began shortly after the turn of the century. Good teams seemed to be consistent; and under Coach Moore, Central began its triumphs in state basketball circles. This continued under Jim Fleugal (1919) and Gene Thomas (1933).

Baseball began in the early 1890's. Its first official schedule in 1895 called for six games against Kalamazoo College. Central won two games and lost four.

The early track meets included potato races, baseball throws, and half-mile and two-mile bicycle races. A meet was held against Lansing High School in 1896, and the capital city won because of superior bicycle riders.

"To walk quietly and in single file through the halls, up and down stairs, and not to remain in the halls or stairways at any time when the school rooms or wardrobes are open."

"To make no loud noise in any part of the building at any time; not to scuffle, run or jump; not to converse in the halls or stairways after the first bell, or when going out at close of school . . ."

"Go to and from school in quiet and orderly manner. . ."

Would many people be able to follow school rules enforced in the 1860's and 1870's? The picture at the top of the page shows how fellow students might look if they did follow the rules. The picture at the bottom of the page shows how they look today.

Central's Past

1859—"Old Union" building was dedicated with an enrollment of 129 students.
1863—The first high school class graduated eight seniors.
1870—An earthquake occurred in the fall.
1874—Circuit Judge Charles R. Brown ruled against taxpayer Charles E. Stuart in the controversy regarding the use of public funds for maintenance of a high school. This blazed the trail for public support of high schools through taxation throughout the entire old Northwest Territory. This is better known as the "Kalamazoo Case."
1876—Scientific and modern languages were added to the high school curriculum in addition to the Classical course and English course.
1880—The "Old Union" was condemned and torn down.
1881—A new high school building was erected.
1884—"The Occident," the earliest Central High School paper of which there is record, began publication.
1893—Battle Creek challenged local high schools to a football contest.
1897—The high school was destroyed by fire and school was held in the Y.M.C.A.
1899—Manual Training course began.
1905—First issue of the Delphian was published.
1913—A new building was erected on Vine Street.
1924—The present Central High School building was finished.
1934—Schools faced acute financial crisis due to the depression, and school closed three weeks early because of lack of necessary funds. The Delphian was rated first by the National Inter-Scholastic Press Association.
1935—The Delphian was rated first for the second year in a row.
1943—Curriculum changed to meet the needs of boys and girls who were to enter industry or armed services. Canteens were begun.
1945—Mr. W. F. Head resigned and Eugene Thomas became principal of Central.
1948—All-State honors were given to the Delphian, the highest award in the state.
1949—Central's basketball team won the state Class A championship against Saginaw Arthur Hill.
1950—The second consecutive state crown was won by the basketball team.
1951—Central adopted a foreign child and won the championship once more.
1954—Central adopted another foreign child.

LANGUAGE ARTS

In this modern day, mastery of languages has become a necessity. Therefore, Central offers a wide variety of languages to contribute to a well-rounded education of the students.

To date, there are six courses offered: English, German, French, Latin, Spanish, and Russian. Students are allowed to choose their language(s), with the exception of English, which is compulsory. English equips the students with a basic knowledge of their language and literature.

The period of study for foreign languages is two years. In German, French, and Spanish, the students are taught the language and customs of the country. In Latin, the students gain an understanding of the basis of the Romance Languages and they read actual source material about the Gallic Wars. Latin is now offered for three years. An important newcomer to the Language Arts Department is Russian. Central is one of the few high schools in the nation offering this subject.

MATHEMATICS

'Rithmetic has always been one of the basic "3 R's" of learning. Today it is more important than ever, and its importance is steadily increasing.

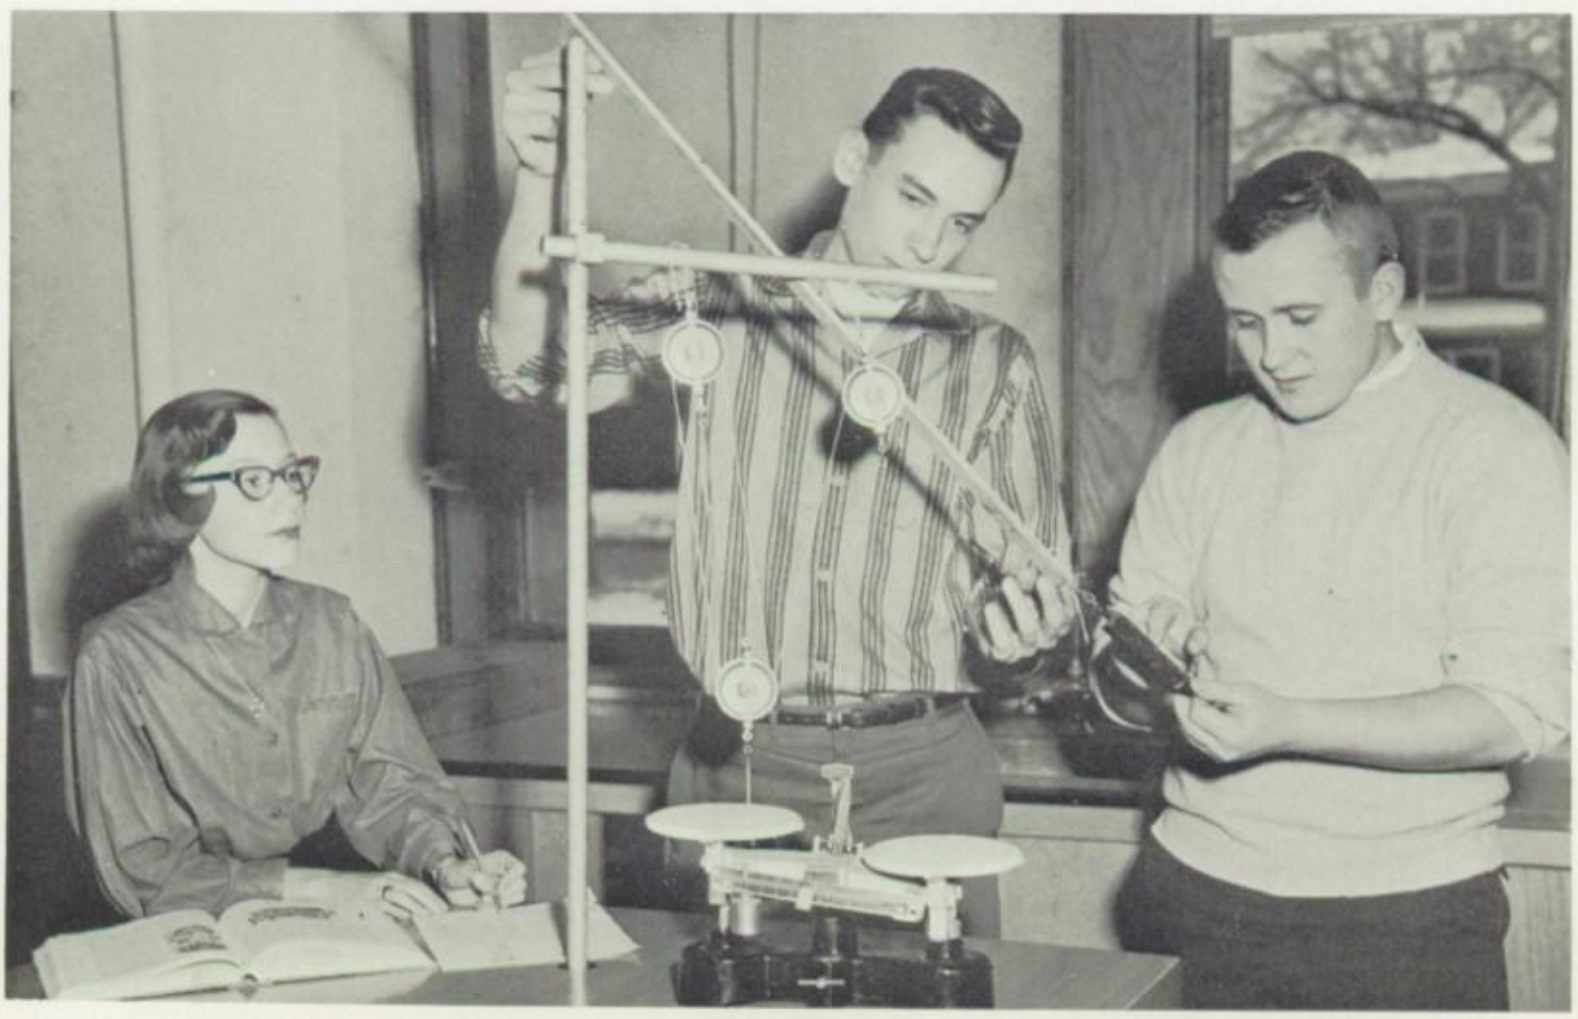
Students may elect a math sequence toward the completion of either a college preparatory course or a prebusiness plan of study. A college preparatory math major usually includes algebra, which treats the relations and properties of numbers; plane and solid geometry, the study of solids, planes, lines, and angles; and trigonometry, which deals with the properties of triangles. Physics may also be counted toward a mathematics major.

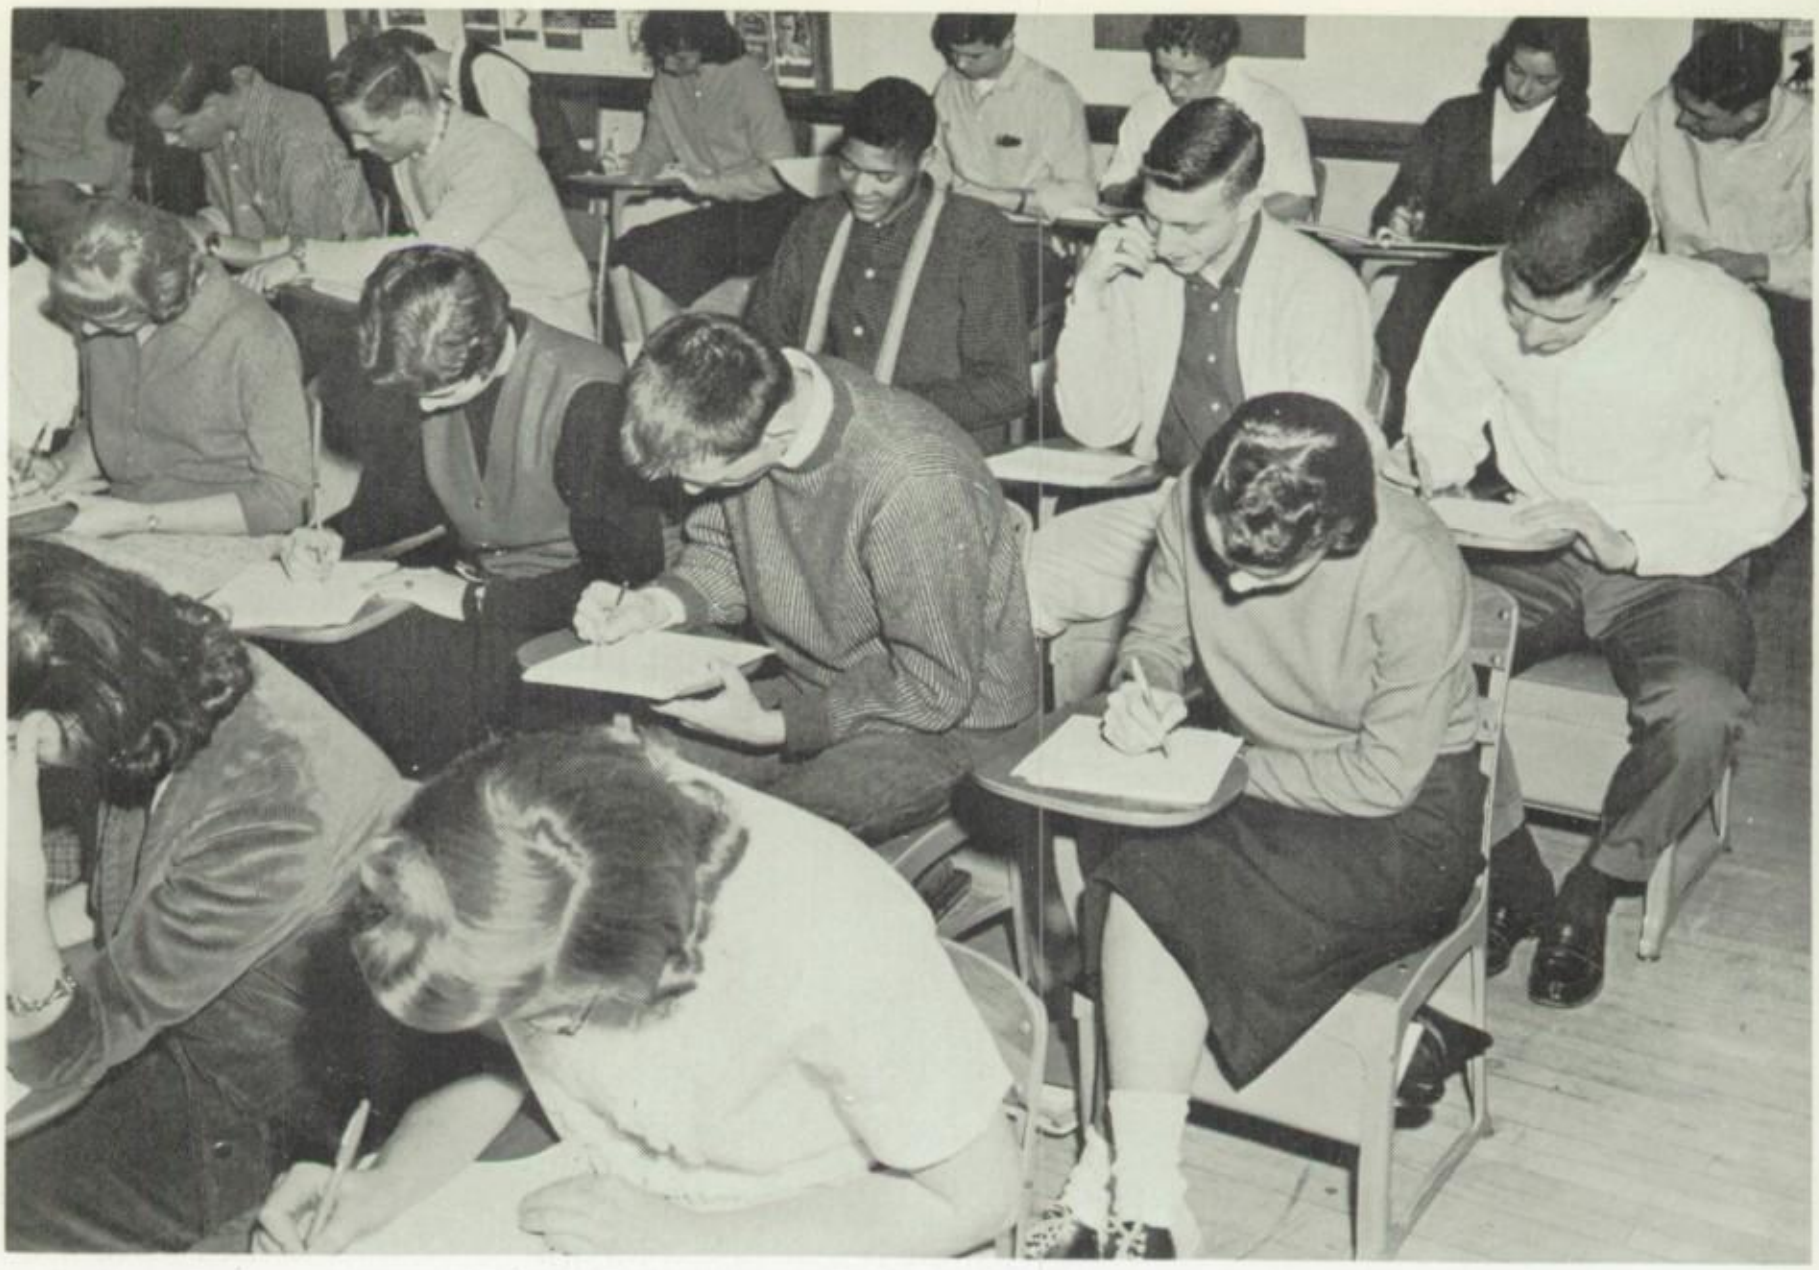
Math in pre-business courses would involve business and shop math. Refresher math is also offered to any student in need of review.

SCIENCE

In the past few years, science has become increasingly important in the educational program of the entire nation. Central's Science Department, which was already an important part of the curriculum, has grown and expanded to meet the increasing need.

Three courses are offered in this department: Biology, Chemistry, and Physics. Biology, usually studied in the tenth grade, is a study of the science of life. Chemistry, an eleventh grade subject, probes the science of the composition of matter and its transformations. In the twelfth grade, a science major is completed with the study of physics which is the study of matter and energy.





SOCIAL SCIENCE

In the tenth grade, students learn about the conditions and changes of the "Old World" in their World History course which is a "stepping-stone" to the understanding of the history of the United States which is offered in the eleventh grade. Starting with the discovery of the "New World" by Spanish explorers, the students are led along the road which fashioned present-day America.

Upon reaching the twelfth grade, seniors have the option of choosing either World Heritage or Government and Economics. In the former, the only course of its kind in the nation, the course of study is divided into four parts: literature, history, philosophy, and cosmology. The latter gives the student a working knowledge of governmental control in state and local governments, income tax, foreign policy, and basis of the economic systems of many other important fields.

MUSIC AND ART

Music and art have long been a part of the Central scene. Art classes directed by Miss Mildred Johnson turn out the future artists whose talents we have already witnessed on posters during campaigns, plays and subscription drives. Many of the winners of the annual Safety Contest have also been Centralites.

The music department is divided into three sections: Robed Choir, Orchestra, and Band. The Robed Choir, a highly selective group of singers, has sung at many of our assemblies as well as having appeared at the Christmas and Easter assemblies. Our orchestra, though small, is doing its share in supplying music between acts at the plays, and entertaining the P.T.S.A. The band is perhaps the largest of our musical organizations. This in itself is divided into the Marching and Concert Bands. In addition to supplying music for the games, parades, and assemblies, it has the job of producing the annual Band Follies.

BUSINESS EDUCATION

In 1942, sequences in the Business Education Department were set up to guide students interested in making business or office work their vocation after completing high school or terminating their formal education in a business college or in a short course at an academic college, such as Western Michigan University. Four sequences were outlined: General Clerical, Retailing, Stenography, and Bookkeeping.

The first year, the 10th grade, is the same for all sequences except Stenography. This means that a student usually does not need to decide on a definite sequence or line of specialization until his junior year at Central. The General Clerical sequence has a lesser amount of specialization, the Bookkeeping sequence requires two full years of Bookkeeping, and the Secretarial or Stenographic sequence requires two full years of Stenography.

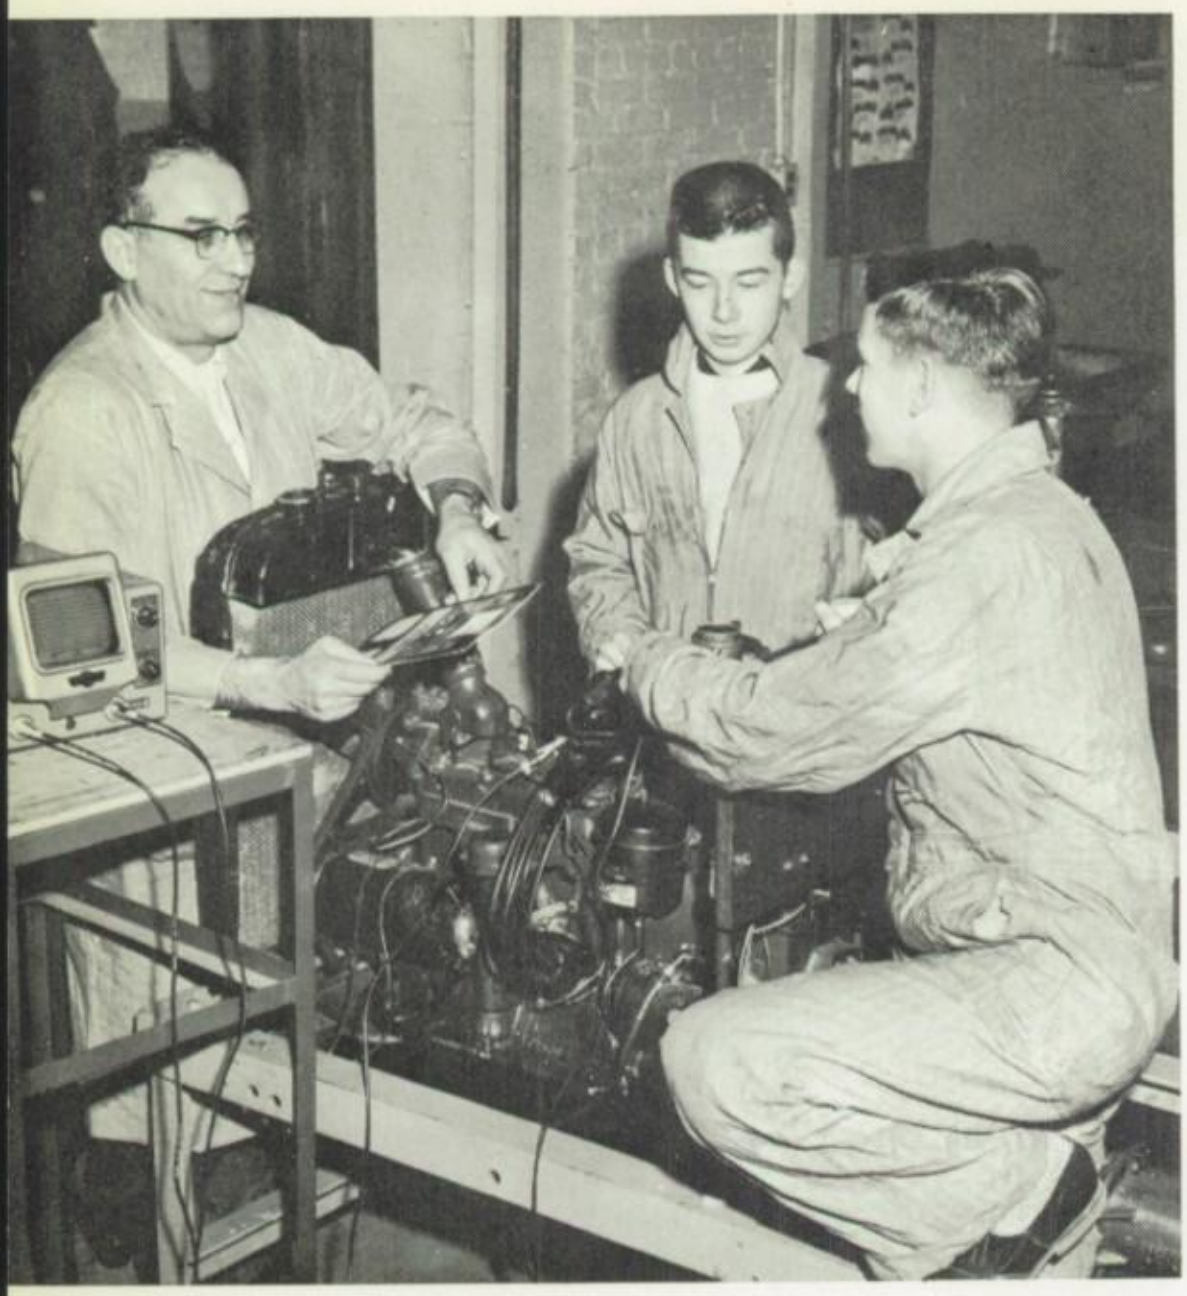
HOMEMAKING

Future housewives gain training in fields such as cooking, sewing, and nursing; fields which will play an important part of their married life.

In the clothing classes, girls learn the basic points of a well-constructed garment, the advantages of sewing to obtain a large wardrobe on a small budget, and the selection of durable materials.

Buying techniques, table setting, economical buying of food, and, of course, the art of cooking are important parts of the foods course.

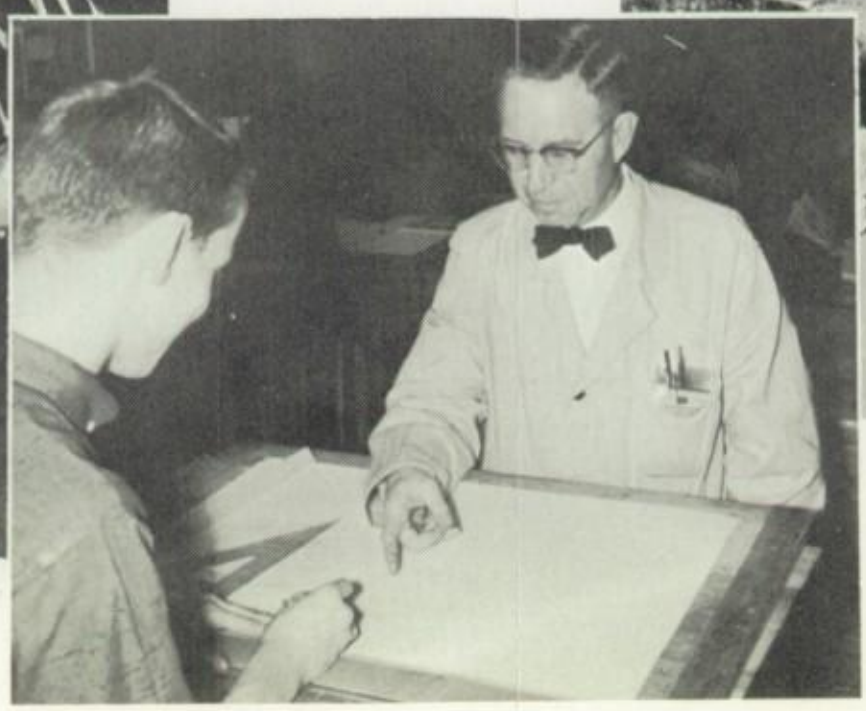
Home nursing, a relatively new subject, teaches the future homemakers practical nursing as well as the art of improvising when there is a sick person in the home.



INDUSTRIAL EDUCATION

Seven sequences of study are offered in the Industrial Education Department. They are architectural drafting, automotive trades, machine drafting, machine trades, printing, sheet-metal and wood-working.

Any individual may take a beginning course in one of these fields merely to add to his general education. Advanced courses, however, are offered only to those students wishing to become proficient in one skill in order to enter that field of employment.



PHYSICAL EDUCATION

Variety is the keyword in Central's Physical Education program. Many varied and diverse courses are offered by this department. In the tenth grade, one semester is spent in regular gym classes, reveiwing fundamentals and learning new skills. During the other semester, each tenth grader receives training in driver education, health, and first aid.

The eleventh grade program involves advanced work in sports and physical exercise and introduces swimming to all students. Home and Family Living is taught to all twelfth graders for the duration of one semester. The twelfth grader could then choose between gym or another class to complete his physical education training.

Central High's Student Council is the most important of all student organizations. The purpose of this council is to assist in the governing of the school's student body by representing the students to the school administration, and the administration to the student body; to develop and encourage proper school spirit; to advance the general welfare of the student body; and to promote good relationships between the school and other schools, and with the community.

This year's first semester council was active in carrying out its purposes. It published the current student directory; sponsored the annual 6-A Conference, activity ticket drive, and the Thanksgiving dance; studied the traffic problem on the corner of Oak Street and Vine Street; and organized the second-semester election of new Student Council officers.

CLUBS

All for You

No matter how much interests vary, Central has a club for everyone. The ever-widening horizon of activities and clubs fits the desires and needs of all types of students. Some learn about different languages or countries in Spanish or Latin Club. Some have the opportunity to express their opinions in Debate Club or Forensics, or to sing hymns in Bible Club. Some promote school spirit in the Pep Club, and lettermen make up the K Club. The intellectuals find Math or Radio Club their interest, while others find their place in the activities of Club H_2O or Coquettes. Still others offer their services in one of the various service organizations such as Movie Club, Red Cross, Hall Guards, Key Club, or Ushers Club.

Yes, our clubs put a bright spot into our school life and provide outside activities for eager students.

Front row: Mr. Robert Feldt, advisor; S. Jurhs, D. Re-plogle, D. Bowman, B. Balch, D. Pyle, S. Engelbreit.

Math Club

The students interested in math and other subjects related to it may be found attending the Math Club. Here the students are introduced to many fields of mathematics; topology, calculus, infinity, the fourth dimension, and various number systems. The main basis for the Math Club is to stimulate interest and promote growth in the field of mathematics.

The club has had various demonstrations throughout the year. One of the most interesting was the introduction to uses of the electric slide rule. One of the most important events of the year is the attending of Western Michigan's Annual Science Day. Mr. Robert Feldt is the sponsor of the Math Club.

First row: Advisor Mr. Elf Pedler, B. Peters, B. Pfeifer, J. Culver, J. Hafer, J. Weston.

K - Club

K-Club members are boys who have earned letters in one of the many inter-school sports: football, basketball, baseball, wrestling, track, tennis, cross country, or swimming. This club consists of about 25 fellows and was organized with the help of Mr. Elf Pedler, the sponsor. One of the projects planned for the year was the sponsoring of a dance.

K-Club, with Pep Club, helps promote school spirit by working on homecoming activities and of course by participating in sports.

Back row: B. Bergmann, J. Anderson, D. Koenig, E. Koole, I. Krastins, G. Licis, I. Balcers, Z. Ilens.

Pep Club

Those peppy girls selling shoo-shoo wands at the football games and cheering Central on to victory at every sports event are none other than the members of the Pep Club. Under the direction of Mr. Donald Brinks, Pep Club promotes school spirit through pep assemblies, pep rallies before school in the morning, and Twirp Week.

This year the Pep Club members were in charge of Football Homecoming, planning of the crowning of the queen, and the planning of the dances for both the football and basketball homecomings.

F.T.A.

The Future Teachers Association is a club organized to provide students with an opportunity to explore the field of teaching. The organization, under the capable guidance of Mrs. Elizabeth Deur, has many programs consisting of speakers or movies and the Cadet Teaching Program for seniors. In addition to giving a party for an orphan home, the group provided babysitters for the Committee of 1001 and ushered at the Michigan Education Association Convention. The club also sends delegates to the state F.T.A. meetings each year.

Front row: J. Van Dyken, N. Zwart, M. Conger, C. Radabaugh, Mrs. Thelma Waber, Mrs. Anna McPherson, E. Zentelis, K. O'Connor, Mrs. Bernadine Hall, M. Campbell, M. Campbell, C. Naser, P. Cabaniss, B. Cullen, S. Smith, N. Rosenbaum, A. Zwart, M. Telfer.

F.N.A.

Future Nurses Association is an organization designed to assist the students in learning about nursing. The club has been host to various speakers and has seen several movies. The members have visited the Bronson Methodist and Borgess Hospitals where they were permitted to do volunteer work, and many seniors attended the "senior overnight" at Bronson where they became acquainted with the duties of nurses. Among the projects this year were "stuffing" envelopes with seals for the Tuberculosis Association Drive, having a rummage sale, and making cotton balls for the Tuberculin Testing Program. The group meets under the supervision of Mrs. Thelma Waber.

Front row: Kiwanis sponsor, Dr. Eugene Arnold; M. Howe, treasurer; W. Ford, secretary; D. Ackley, president; T. Neujahr, vice-president; D. Meyers, lieutenant governor; Dr. Gerald Osborn, Kiwanis sponsor.

Back row: D. Petering, J. Abernathy, B. Collin, K. Elzinga, F. Hannapel, A. Ziemelis, D. DeMoor, D. Schoonmaker.

Key Club

When fellows are seen passing out posters, making Christmas baskets and helping the Kiwanis Club with their projects (Pretty Lake Vacation Camp is one), it's a sure bet they are Key Club members. Central's Key Club, a public service organization, includes in its money-making projects donut sales, rummage sales, and car washes. In addition to service projects, this money is used to send club members to state and national Key Club conventions.

Red Cross: Mr. Gilbert Reinkensmeyer, Sharon Stanger, Barb VanderLinde, John Abernathy, Judy Young.

The American Junior Red Cross at Central is dedicated to raising money for the Senior Red Cross Council for many worthy projects. This money is raised in a variety of ways, including the membership drive which was a big success. Another project was the dance given for the youth of the State Hospital. These projects are put into operation with the help of Mr. Gilbert Reinkensmeyer, sponsor.

Front row: M. Klok, vice-president; P. Hubbard, M. Belding, P. Smathers, S. Ford, M. Rochle, Richard Kowal, sponsor.

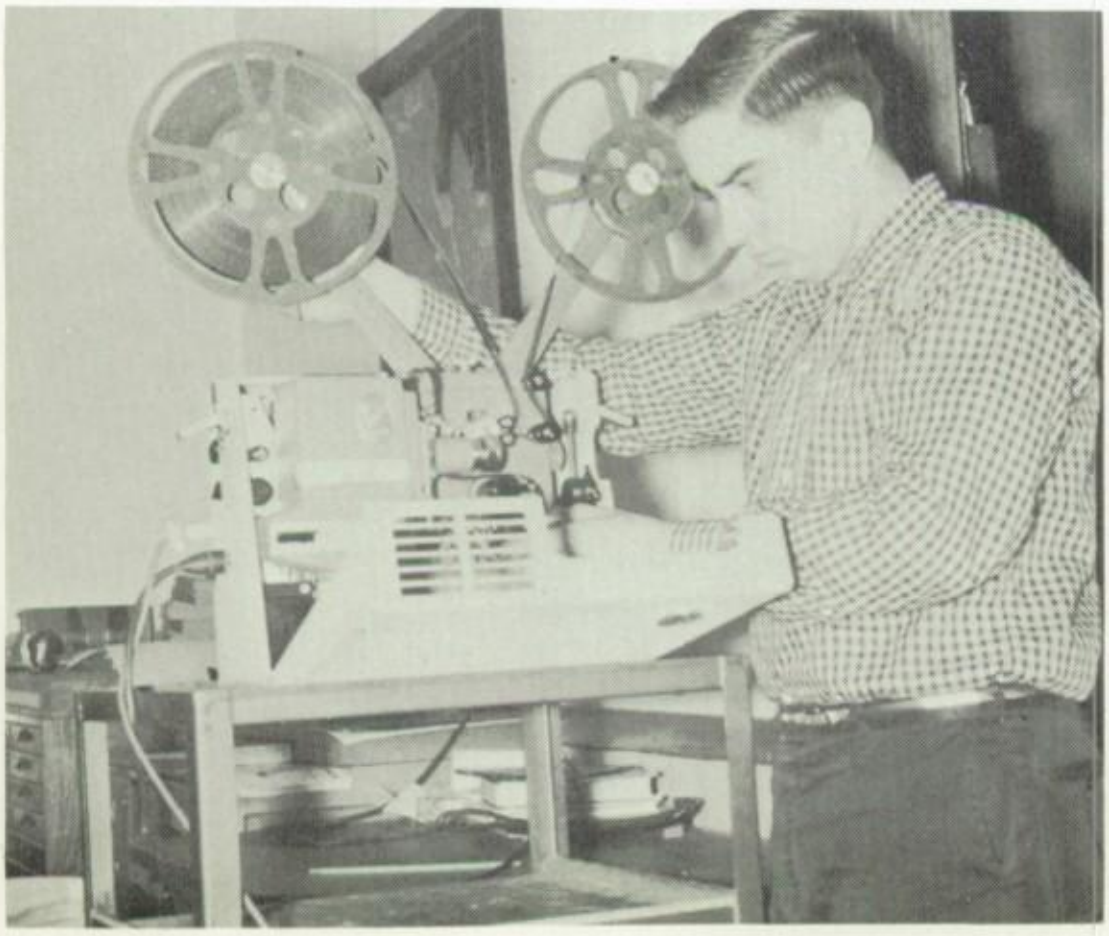
Movie Club



When the reels are rolling, you know a movie clubber is on hand. Members run not only projectors but also tape recorders and record players. Under the direction of their advisor, Mr. Richard Kowal, they learn to handle and care for all types of audio-visual aids. This club is the largest school service organization in the state of Michigan in which members are active in school time. As a reward for service, movie clubbers are given pins for one year of service and, in their senior year, letters for two years of service. In addition to these tangible awards is the satisfaction of serving the school.

Radio Club

Under the direction of Mr. Roy Mesick, the sponsor, Radio Club carries out projects which include the operation of a transistor radio set up by the members.

Forensics Club

In the Forensics Club, fun is mixed with work to improve and develop students' speaking habits and at the same time provide an enjoyable activity. Mr. Kenneth Engle, the sponsor of the group, works with them to improve oral skills in any of five phases of speaking: declamations, humorous readings, original orations, dramatic readings, and extemporary speaking. Students from each division of reading are chosen to compete with other 6-A schools, and two students are then chosen to be representatives at the state finals.

Mr. Ken Engle, N. Coffman, B. Lenardson, J. Brignall, E. Heinle, J. Foreman, D. Gernant, A. Maldups.

Debate Club

Debate Club consists of two teams which have matches with other schools, the negative side and the affirmative side. Not only does the club challenge the minds of the debaters and help them develop skills in speaking and in thinking, but it also promotes friendly relations with other schools. This type of club is both educational and fun for the participants as they practice and attain their skills under the guidance of Mr. Ken Engle, sponsor of the club.

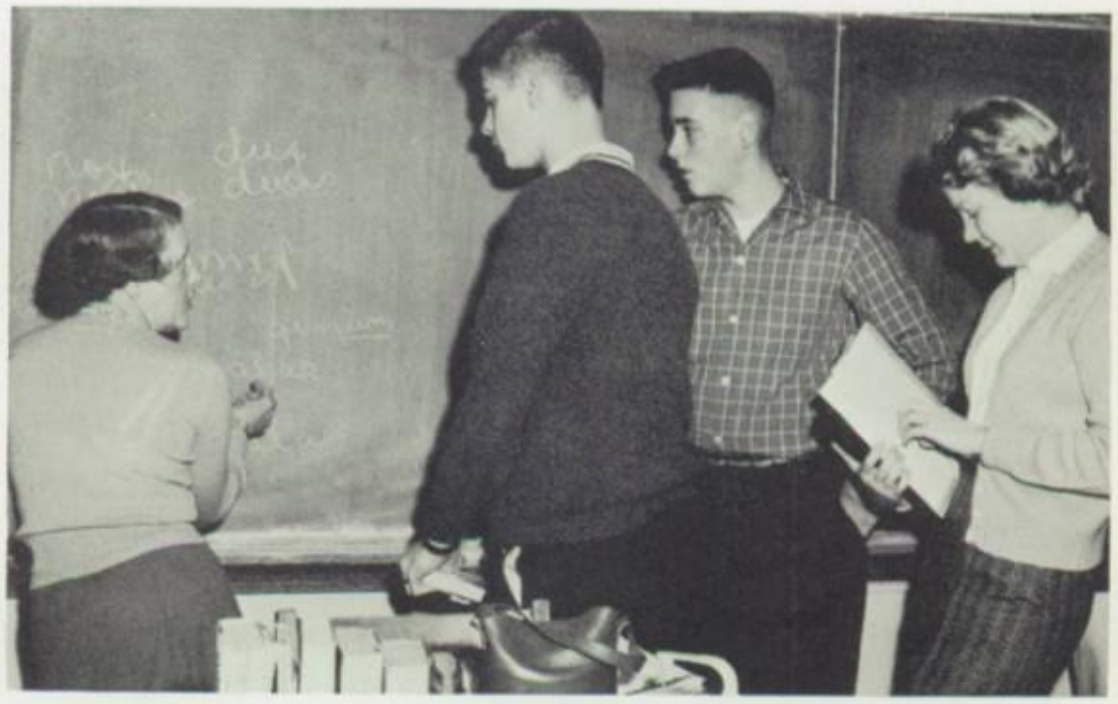
Spanish Club

Spanish Club is made up of second-year Spanish students who want to learn to speak and understand Spanish in a social setting. Miss Janice O'Dell, sponsor of the club, helps with various activities such as candy sales. Outside speakers, movies, and Spanish games are featured at meetings and a Spanish dinner is held at the end of the year.

Front row: J. Meyer, J. VanderLinde, S. Sanders, J. Van Liere, B. Rapley, D. Replogle.
Second row: K. Humm, M. Marusek, M. Smits, B. Pfeiffer, Mrs. Muriel Vincent, sponsor; M. Abolins, S. Bartels, C. Early.
Back row: J. Foreman, T. Fox.

Latin Club



If you heard someone at the beginning of an assembly saying the "Pledge of Allegiance" in Latin, don't wonder or worry! He was only a member of the Latin Club. This little feat is only one of the few accomplishments of the Latin Club. During the year the club has learned how to sing songs, read poems, and play "Bingo" in Latin. Another pleasure of the club is the participation in the Roman Holiday in Sturgis. Under the supervision of Mrs. Muriel Vincent, the group uses the Latin language as a means of fun.

Front row: A. Jamsons, G. Licis, K. Piket, P. Seibert, E. Johnson, D. Dixon, E. Fales, Mr. Howard Chenery.
Second row: B. Bergmann, M. Abolins, I. Balcers, C. Randt, Z. Ilens.
Back row: M. Roekle, I. Zadins, W. Huyck, S. Bachelder, J. Ruse, B. Bos, A. Kengis, D. Kalnajs.

Ushers Club

When attending a play or any of the other school productions, viewers are always greeted by friendly girls with smiles who give them programs and usher them to their seats. These girls are members of the Ushers Club. Under the direction of Mr. Chenery, the girls faithfully perform their duties at all school productions. They have also been called upon to usher for concerts, outside speakers, and other activities taking place at our school.

Front row: S. Bolhuis, M. VanderWeele, R. Kelly, J. Catton.
Second row: N. Draper, A. Luteyn, E. Kirkpatrick, S. Reed.
Back row: G. Missias, B. Smelker, G. Hutchins, C. Christensen.

Hall Guards

The Hall Guards are the people who can be seen sitting in the halls keeping order and seeing that the halls are quiet. This job is necessary in order to have good working conditions in the class rooms.

This club, under the supervision of the Student Council and student chairman George Missias, is really a service organization dedicated to help keep our school in a pleasant, workable atmosphere.

Front row: Joyce Rhoades.
Second row: Rosemary Higgins, Beth Gorton, Marsha Gates, Lynne Schredur.

Coquettes

Coquettes is an organization of about 25 girls which is associated with the Y.W.C.A. The sponsors of Coquettes are Janet Dillon and Sylvajean Hauch. Some of the various projects and activities with which they aided the girls were the Charm School and the planning of a spring trip.

Front row: N. Olvett, P. Kooi, C. White, B. Knoll, J. Reinsma, S. DeWinter, P. Schuur, J. VanDeLaare, J. Bland, S. Pontz, A. Lavender, L. Cristy, S. Smith, L. VandenBerg, K. Donaldson.

Club H_2O

Club H_2O, the inter-school synchronized swim club, is sponsored by the Y.W.C.A. and Central. Mrs. Max Crook and Mrs. Dawn Wiese are the club's advisors.

This year Club H_2O presented its water show at Western Michigan University's new pool on April 9 and 10. The show's theme was "Bali Ha'i" and its plot was based upon the adventures of a young sailor stranded on a mysterious island.

Front row: T. Lassitter, S. Courtney, Mr. George Strickland, advisor; G. Wiese, G. Ide, V. VanRavenswaay, D. O'Day, S. Bolhuis, S. Hall.

Bible Club

The Bible Club of Central High provides inspiration for its members as well as fellowship. Among the club's projects is participation in biblical quizzes with Bible Club members from other schools.

The meetings often have guest speakers, films, and film strips in addition to the scripture reading and planned program. The club is aided in all its activities by Mr. George Strickland, sponsor.

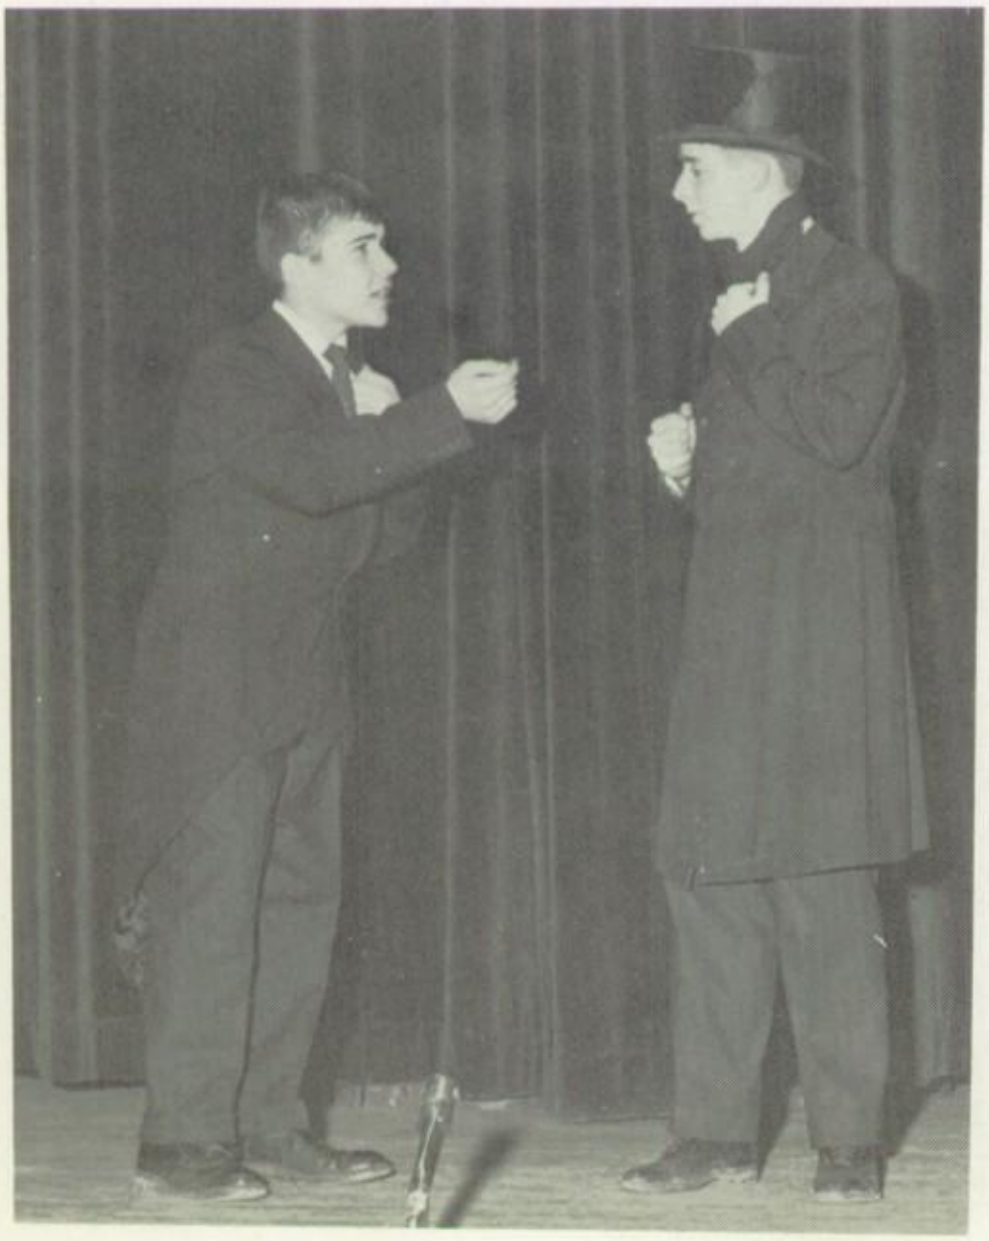
DRAMATICS

Centennial



The Centennial Pageant was held March 20 and 21; commemorating the anniversary of Central's founding 100 years ago. The pageant was written, staged, and directed by Mr. Howard Chenery with music provided by the Music Department.

The pageant told the story of Central's history, often reflecting the temperament of the people at the time of Central's establishment.

The scene at the right shows that teenagers of today are no different from teenagers of yesterday.

The scene below depicts a group of women discussing the school situation and deciding that schools are women's business as well as that of men.

Pageant

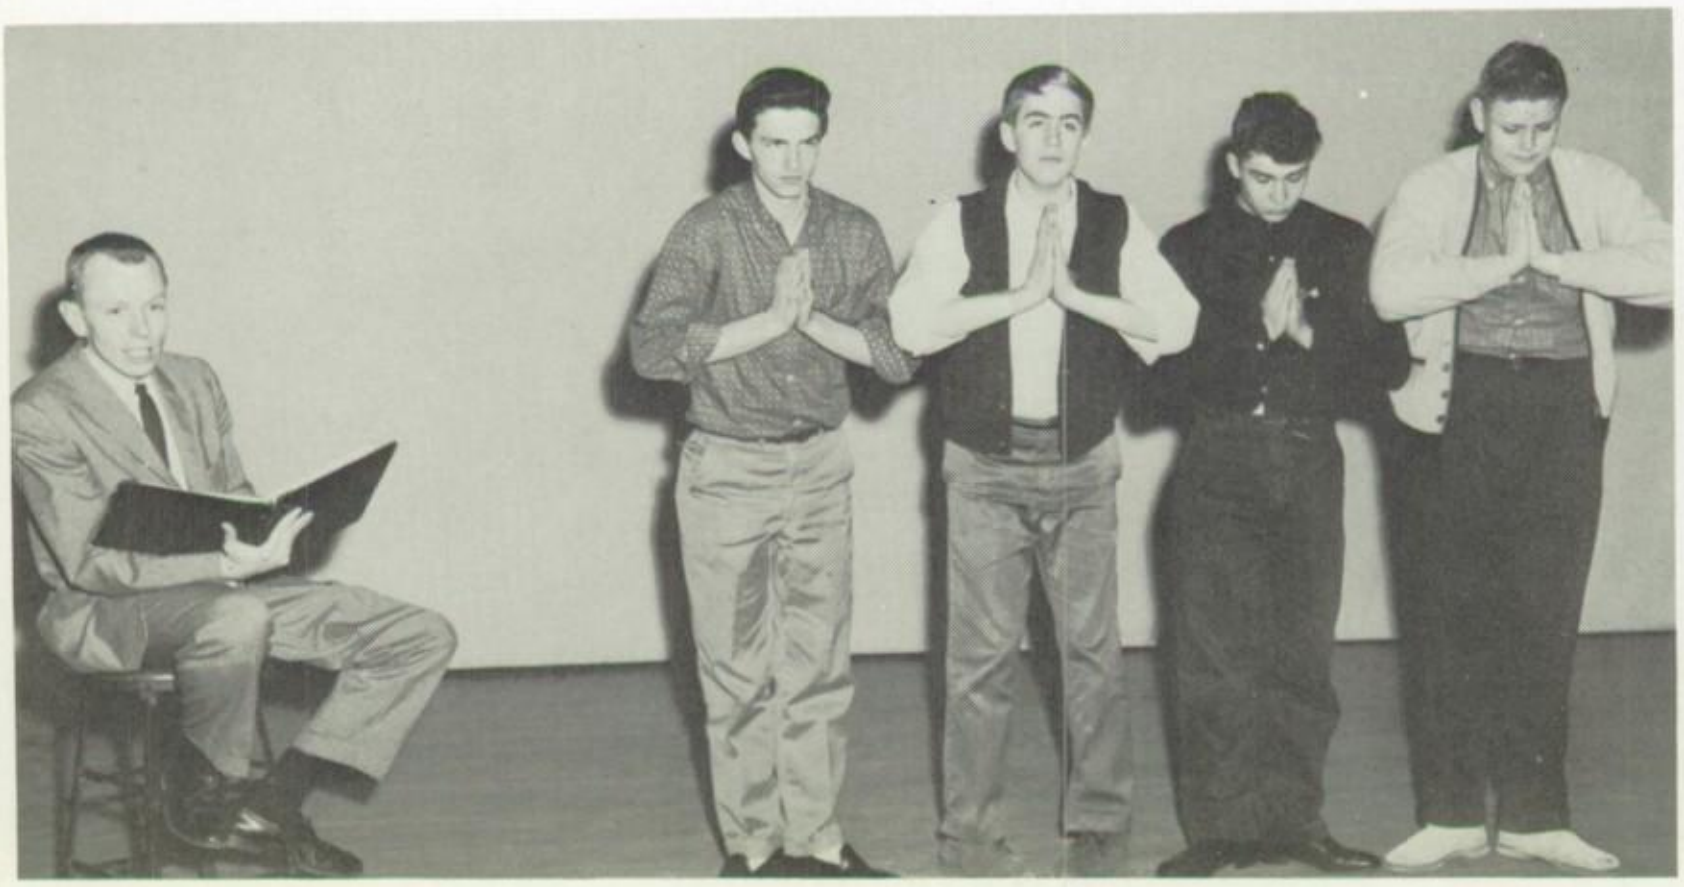
The scene at the bottom of the page pictures the important board meeting when the location of Central was decided.

The fair maiden curtseys to her prince.

Another fair maiden makes a catch.

Musical "Sweethearts"

Mr. Kasdorf directs the four comical monks.



The musical comedy "Sweethearts" by Victor Herbert was presented May 1 and 2 by the Music Department. This musical comedy is the story of a romance between a laundry maid and a prince who hopes to have the young lady for his own even though she is far beneath his station and is therefore unable to marry him. Love triumphs in the end, however, when the prince learns his true love is actually a princess.

The cast included Sandra Nutter, Henry De Jonge, Anne Jordan, Elva Drummond, Sherry Cross, Sally Shipley, Penny Seibert, Janet Hollander, Diane Vahey, Bonita Anderson, Frank Immekus, and a chorus of the robed choir members.

The daughters watch as mother reprimands her husband.

Gentlemen Prefer Blondes

The November play was staged and directed by Howard Chenery.

Nancy Grunwaldt receives upsetting news from Barb Bergmann, Donna Springsteen, Jim Kingsbury and Lynn Peterson.

A delightful three-act comedy by Anita Loos was the vehicle for the first play of the year. In addition to those pictured, the cast included: Connie Radabaugh, Julie Robinson, Karen Walters, Carol Kline, Phyllis Biddle, Susan Smith, Jim Royle, La Von Vineyard, George Straayer, Maurice Warner, Carol White, Diane Vahey, Sally Shipley, Billy Rapley, Barbara Guyer, Frank Immekus, Mike Leonard, Karen Buys, Dean Orr, Roger Gauntlett and John Pitcher.

The blonde, Lynn Peterson, meets gentleman Jim Kingsbury.

One will die!

The Cat and the Canary

Directed by
Howard Chenery

The thrilling mystery play was presented with the following cast: Dean Orr, Karen Buys, David Lowden, Lonnie Lennon, Virginia Moffit, Maurice Warner, John Abernathy, Sandra Stock, Alan Lamphear, and George W. Straayer.

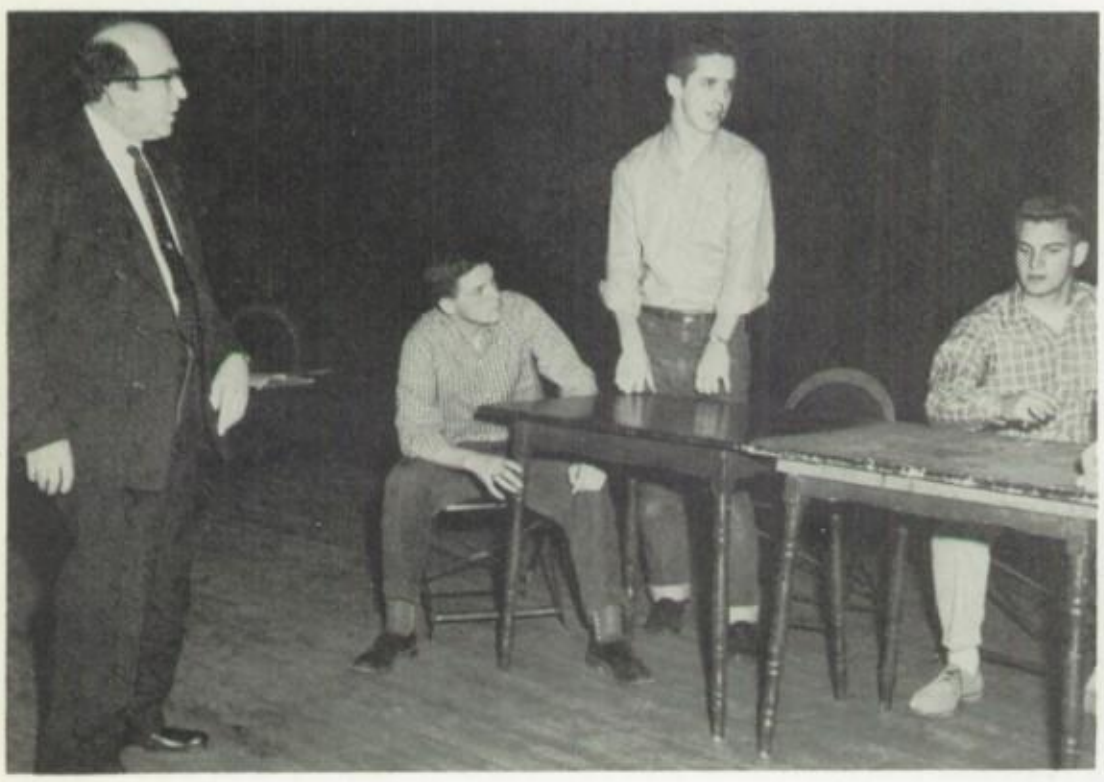
The warning.

Can you find the secret door?

Mr. Howard Chenery, the backbone of Central's dramatics, directs with a movable microphone.

Dramatics Productio

Many weeks' work is done behind the scenes before the final presentation of any production. A play must be selected and cast, the actors must become familiar with their parts, and the play must be staged. It is a big undertaking to coordinate and organize the movements, lighting, scenery and costumes.



Many details must be worked out.

"Put feeling into it!"

Band

Our Master of Ceremonies, Jim Royle

Revue à la Carte, with Jim Royle as Master of Ceremonies, proved to be a highly successful production. The French flair of this presentation was carried out in several of the acts with a modern toe dance, a skit, a rendition of "Nameless Boogie," and many other exciting acts. The melodious strains of the mixed chorus added much to the beauty of this event as did the exciting fashions modeled by the showgirls. Our chorus line proved to be real high-stepping gals and guys, all adding up to a really swell Band Follies.

The boys' and girls' chorus line and the show girls were a welcome addition to the Follies.

The Robed Choir, under the watchful eye of Mr. Thomas Kasdorf, proved to be a credit to the school through its many school and public performances. The Men's Glee Club, composed of about 40 voices, was a welcome addition to our vocal department, as were the Men's and Girls' Ensembles. The Mixed Ensemble, a small select group of voices from the Robed Choir performed at many public affairs as well as in the Band Follies.

"Rise and shine you sleepyheads, we've got orchestra this morning." This little reminder was often heard among the hard-working members of this popular group, for while other students were still struggling to get to school, these energetic students were practicing their hardest. The melodious strains they produced under the capable direction of Mr. Martin Flavin were heard at all our plays and also at the Christmas Concert.

The Inter-School Council sponsored College Night early in the school year. All juniors and seniors from the area high schools and their parents were invited to attend. Representatives from various colleges and universities from Michigan, Indiana, Ohio, and the East were assigned classrooms where interested students and parents attended meetings on the specific schools.

Talking with the various representatives is a good way to gain useful information about college life; and because of the great success of College Night, it is a "sure bet" for the years to come.

Wisdom, foresight, and humor: these were the traits most apparent when Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt spoke to 2,600 people in the C.H.S. auditorium, October 23. Her listeners were rewarded by a wealth of ideas in which her optimistic point of view on the world situation encouraged a brighter outlook on life.

Central commemorated the famous "Kalamazoo Case" with the presentation of a plaque to be placed outside the school. The Kalamazoo Case made it legal for high schools to be supported by taxes. This court decision has been the basis for state-supported high schools throughout the nation.

The members of Central's state Class A championship basketball team of 1932 were Coach Eugene Thomas, Dave Arnold, Ward Brundage, Chris Everhardus, Bill McClellan, and Dale Hughes.

Former graduates of Central were invited back to a reunion and reception as part of the Centennial Celebration. Alumni met in various rooms according to the classes from which they graduated. Former athletes met in the varsity room. Teachers who taught at Central during the time when many of the alumni were in school were on hand to greet former students. Following the reunion period, a reception was held in the gymnasium, and a dance completed the evening. Classes from the 1880's to 1958 were represented. Miss Dorothy Scott and Miss Beatrice Koepfgen were co-chairmen of the reception committee.

At the reunion, the team lined up in the same order as the 1932 picture, although Dave Arnold's spot is unoccupied because his duties as assistant state director of athletics kept him at Lansing for the state basketball finals.

. Though the 1958 Maroon Giant football record was disappointing in the win-loss column, it showed marked improvement over the previous year.

Central finished the season with 54 men on the squad. Thirty-seven of these earned varsity letters and gained a great deal of game experience. From the starting offensive unit only one man is graduating, and from the starting defensive unit only two are graduating.

Three men were honored for their fine play by being selected on all-star teams: Ron Powers, a junior, was named to both the All 6-A and All-City teams; Larry Bontrager, a junior, was named to the All-City team; and Bob Peters, also a junior, was named to the All-City team. The team captain this year was Jim Culver, and elected co-captains for next year are Ron Powers and Larry Bontrager.

Reserve Football

The reserve football team began its 1958 season with 81 boys reporting to coach Art Jevert and his assistants. The opening game of the campaign was a bitterly-fought battle with the Bearcats of Battle Creek, and the visitors came out victorious with a 14 to 0 triumph over the Little Maroon Giants.

As the season progressed, the Giants grew in strength; moving on to defeat a strong Grand Rapids Union team by the score of 31 to 6. The peak of the season was reached in the final game, when the Little Giants playing Battle Creek for a second time, went on to outplay and outscore the very powerful Bearcat eleven by the score of 27 to 14.

The Little Maroon Giants finished the season with a 2 and 5 record.

The 1958 cross-country team under coach Elf Pedler won only one meet, a dual meet with Benton Harbor, but it finished well in three big meets, at Hastings, Albion, and the Regional.

Senior co-captain John Beard was a bright spot on the team when he set a new Central record on the three-year-old Milham Park course.

Returning next year will be captain-elect Bob Pountain, Ray Harris, Paul Olson, and Dave Pfeifer.

The 1958-59 Maroon Giant Basketball squad put on a good show for the home fans by winning seven out of nine games on the WMU Fieldhouse court. The most important victories were over Sexton, the 6-A champ; Benton Harbor in the homecoming game, and Ann Arbor in the final regular season game. A new rivalry began this year when Portage was downed in late January.

The scoring load was carried by forwards Lyle Baker, who led the 6-A in scoring, and Gus Berzins who had several hot nights. Phil Lawrence came through at center and Dick Cassell proved himself a fine floor man at guard. Berzins, guard Jack Skivington, and forward Ron Dykehouse are the graduating lettermen.

Much of the credit for the success of this year's team should go to our fine coach, Mr. Bob Quiring. With five lettermen returning, things look even brighter for next year.

1958-59 year was the best year in history for the Maroon Giant wrestling team. In an eleven team regional the Giants finished second only twelve points behind Jackson, but fifteen ahead of Battle Creek, and forty-one ahead of Niles. In the state meet the team was ninth. The dual meet record showed six wins and five losses.

Coach Bill Nelson will have most of the lettermen back next year.

Our Seniors

This year's swimming team is the first that coach Chris Mengel can claim as all his own. Although the victories were few, the team performed well. Of the two victories this year, the Grand Rapids Christian defeat was one of the most one-sided victories in C.H.S. swimming history. The score at the conclusion of the meet stood Central 74, Grand Rapids Christian 21.

After losing all of its league meets, the Giants were able to pull out of the basement position by placing fifth in the 6-A League swimming meet. At this meet standout performances for Central were given by John VanderSalm, Dave Boehlke, Jerry Green, and medley relay team of Boehlke, Green, Mike Huston and Tom Huff.

The outlook for the swimming team is good. With enthusiasm running high and a number of outstanding Juniors and Sophomores returning, the C.H.S. swimming next year may rally to give the fans some "upset" meets.

Second row: H. Reno, W. Randle, A. Walker, B. Daggett, P. Wilson, B. Pfeifer, R. Beals, B. Pountain, W. Williams.

Track

At press time, Coach Elf Pedler's track squad was looking forward to a successful season. Returning from last year's team were eight lettermen: Bud Daggett, school record holder in the shot put; Art Walker, also a very good shot putter; sprinters Marv Thompson, Joe Palmore, Willie Dunigan, and Paul Wilson, also a broad jumper; Bill Pfeiffer, half-miler, Jim Harris, miler, and Bob Gardner, quarter-miler.

This year's team boasted a big headstart over most of its competitors because it had been practicing indoors at the Western Michigan University Fieldhouse since February.

Front row: P. Chaffee, B. Belcher, C. Mitchell, A. Walker, R. Gaston, R. Macomber.

Coach Ken Engle and the nucleus of this year's golf team: Tim Haynes, Warren Ford, Gary Clay, and Dick Dozier.

Golf

At press time the future looks bright for the 1959 Maroon Giant golf team. Three of four lettermen returned from last year's team which finished third in the Six-A. Mr. Ken Engle, coach, stated that this year's team has the potential to win the Six-A. Jackson appeared to be the strongest obstacle in the title path. Returning were Dick Dozier, a junior who was medalist for CHS in nine matches last year, Warren Ford, a senior who played in all twelve matches, and Tim Haynes, a junior who had a slow start but played good golf toward the end of the season. Other good prospects were Gary Clay from last year's squad, juniors Phil Lawrence and Stan Goodrich, and sophomores George Zupanic and Bob Probasco.

Tennis

As the DELPHIAN went to press, the varsity tennis squad had not been chosen. The above picture represents those who survived the first cut of the large number of boys trying out.

The varsity squad will be made up of about 25 boys of whom 14 will constitute the traveling team.

The team appeared to have plenty of depth this year. With this depth, high enthusiasm, and six returning lettermen, the team had hopes of ranking high in the Six-A league.

This year the tennis team was coached by Mr. Don Worth, a one-time tennis star at Kalamazoo College who in recent years has been in charge of summer activities at Stowe Stadium.

Baseball

Due to an early deadline, the final varsity baseball squad could not be pictured. The above squad represents the boys who were out for the team at that time.

Mr. Quiring had seven returning lettermen, four of whom were regulars last year: Jack Skivington, second base; Larry Bontrager, catcher; Ron Powers, third base; and Gus Berzins, left field. It was generally felt that the team showed great promise for the coming season with an especially strong hitting section and "up-n-coming" underclassmen such as Sophomore Dave Reeves at the mound.

Football Homecoming

Football Homecoming Chairmen, the girls who made the 1958 Football Homecoming a success.

Front row, seated: L. Cooper. B. Bergmann, B. Baker, S. Newman.
Second row: P. Kooi, R. Walker, D. Koenig, S. Pontz, P. Herrick, J. Hess, M. Glenn.
Back row, standing: A. Lavender, L. Lennon, M. Hope, S. Harback, J. Troccko, J. Staebler, G. Russell, J. Snyder, N. Gruizenga.

The schoolday celebration for the Football Homecoming included an informal morning pep rally, school colors, traditional homecoming sales, and the spirited pep assembly.

Left: "They don't scare us!"

Right: "Our guys will shine tonight!"

The up'n coming Class of 1960 council came through with the "most original" float in the parade. Not only did the members of the council put many hours of hard labor into their float, but they also spent much time practicing for the big night of "Junior music."

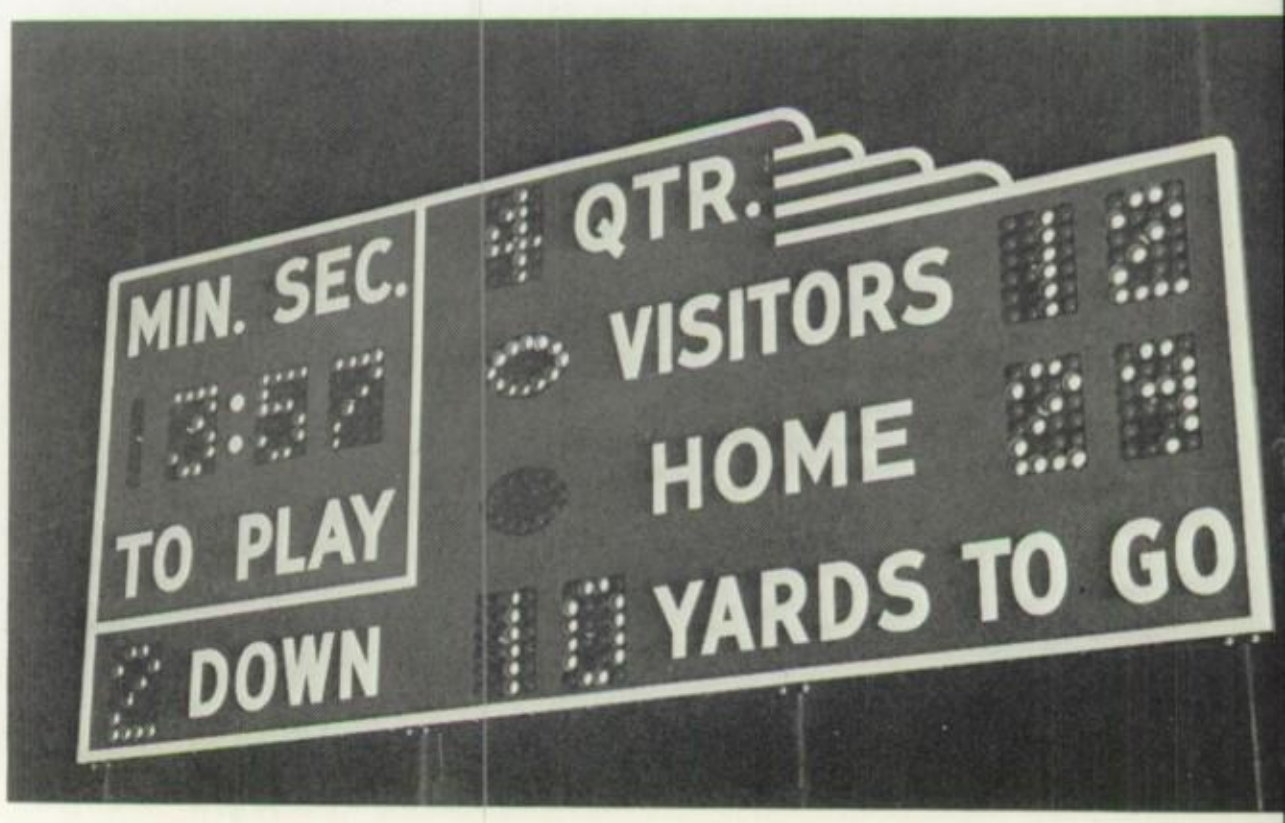
After many nights of wagon repairing, tedious napkin stuffing, and moral-boosting song, the Robed Choir came through with the "most beautiful" float in the 1958 Football Homecoming parade. Having acquired this recognition, the Robed Choir was awarded $15 by the Pep Club. This award has never been more deserved; for as this lovely float passed through the streets, many "Oh's" and "Ah's " could be heard.

Laughter and song could be heard from the ever-enthusiastic seniors as they carefully molded the funniest, yes, the "most humorous" float. Willing teachers who once again wished to go back to those "youthful days" of desks and duties helped to secure the judges votes. People and action played an important role on this float.

Carol Kreeger was crowned Queen by Mr. Thomas during halftime of the big game. The members of her court were Vicki LaVerne and Debbie Kooi.

"There'll be no funny business! Get out there and fight!"

They fought! Yes, Central battled on to VICTORY!



Carol Kreeger and Larry Bontrager were picked as Central's favorite gal and guy during the 1958 Football Homecoming. The members of their court included Debbie Kooi and Jim Culver, Vicki La Verne and Ron Powers. The three cuties reigned over the victorious homecoming game held Friday, November 7.

The Queen and her King also reigned over the traditional homecoming dance, "It's All in the Game," the following night.

The "Twilighters," a group of Central's musical fellows, provided the romatic tones and the "jive" beats during the evening of the dance.

Every fella brought his favorite girl . . . of course!

Basketball Homecoming

The Centennial Basektball Homecoming of 1959 was a great success, and these are the girls who made it so: Carol Kreeger, Carol Chumas, Barb DeVries, Rosalind Walker, Lonnie Lennon, Dawn Koenig, Janet Snyder, Linda Cooper, Ann Lavender, and Nancy Gruizenga.

The Basketball "oldtimers" from the 1890's to the 1959's were introduced in the Homecoming Assembly. Two of Central's great coaches, the famous Mr. Buck Reed and our own Mr. Robert Quiring, spoke to the enthusiastic audience. With the help of these two men and the rest of the assembly cast, our fellas were spurred on to a 61 to 53 victory.

The first runners-up in the royal competition were Sue Shinn and Gus Berzins.

The other members of the court were Nancy Newman and Ron Powers.

The 1959 basketball homecoming king and queen, Carol Chumas and Jack Skivington, were crowned at the halftime ceremonies of the game by Jim Brignall, Student Council president. Carol and Jack also reigned over the homecoming dance, "Century Sweethearts," which followed the game.

OUR SUPERINTENDENTS

Although many of the students at C.H.S. have had no direct contact with the superintendent and the assistant superintendent, we realize their concern in the growth of our education. Their presence has been felt by the contributions they have made in the building of our school system. May their high ideals continue to be fruitful in years to come.

Chomp

Cafeteria staff, seated: Dorothy VanderBeek, Dorothy Helmer, Marguerite Bedford, Vivian Mae Rithbie.

Standing: Anne Dombos, Minnie Vanderseelt, Ethel Gilbert, Leila Van Auken.

The cafeteria provides lunches for many students, and has three available food sections: One for the main, hot lunches, another for hamburgs, and a third for barbecues. In addition, there is a counter selling only milk.

All this food is prepared in a clean, sanitary kitchen and served piping hot to the customers. Milk and some other foods are supplied cheaply by the United States Government to insure a quantity of good healthy food.

Two other rooms, in addition to the cafeteria, are provided for "the lunchbag clan;" and they often purchase only their milk.

Quiet Please

The library is a quiet, yet busy place filled with students, librarians, and books. Besides the main room, there is an additional reference section to aid the research student.

The library contains not only books on its many bookshelves, but the latest magazines in the magazine rack and the latest cartoons on the bulletin board to provide a chuckle for those entering and leaving. These things couldn't be found in the library back in 1859!

Who are the students who carry notebooks home every night? Who are the chaps who follow the seniors into a revolving door, and come out first? Who make up those groups of which it takes all kinds to make a school? Yes, they are the sophomores. Their greatest achievement was learning their way around the school after being sold many elevator tickets. They finally chose class officers and made their next move—collecting dues. They erected a magnificent float which was neglected when the prizes were given.

Yes, the sophomores may be "out of the spotlight" now, but keep your eye on them!

Class of 1960

Class Council Members:

Front row: E. Fales, J. Burke, B. Pontz.
Second row: S. Boughton, B. Gornick, S. Shipley, N. Bissell, B. Brill.
Back row: T. Bachmeyer, A. Zwart, S. Shipley, L. Herron, M. Smith, Mr. Samuel Peppel, advisor.

J-Hop Committee:

Seated: N. Rosenbaum, N. Meulman, T. Bachmeyer, C. Cook, S. Boughton.
Standing: N. Angotti, N. Johnson, B. Brill, E. Fales, J. Brundage, B. Gornick, J. Reinsma.

The Class of 1960 has taken that most important "hop" this year, from being the green sophs to the long-awaited positions of seniors. They have both followed and set examples, carried on traditions and stamped their own views on life at Central, with success in all ways.

The juniors were off to an extra start this year by receiving their class rings during the summer. Not long after school had begun, they set to work on their Homecoming float, which was the winner of the "most original" prize.

The annual "J-Hop" was held on May 8 and was greatly enjoyed by everyone who attended. Juniors them climaxed a year full of accomplishment with the Junior-Senior Tea which was given in June.

The Junior Class "shuffled up a winner" of the Most Original prize with this float.

These people—the Class of 1959—are the ones ho have followed the paths of the past 100 years nd who have paved the way for the coming stuents of the next 100 years. They are the ones ho have set examples for the Classes of 1960 nd 1961.

Besides taking their books home every night study, the Class of 1959 was kept busy with other ctivities. Each year since 1955, the Class of 1959 as elected officers and collected dues. In the tenth rade the "59ers" chose class rings which were ceived in their junior year. During the eleventh nd twelfth grades, they sold pennants at Homecoming. The seniors who are graduating this year have also proved to all that they are excellent float-makers by winning three first prizes on floats which they contributed to three different homecomings. The Class of 1959 has shown originality, too, by planning three formals, "April Love," "Centennial Ball," and the Senior Prom, which were all spectacular.

By having their pictures taken, by preparing this Delphian, by attending the Senior Prom and Banquet, and by receiving diplomas at Commencement; these seniors of the Class of 1959 are writing the final pages of their history at Central.

Waiting in line for a pennant . . . . .

"Buy a 1959 Delphian!"

Another grand winner for the Class of 1959

Senior Day Planning Committee. Front row: Mr. Samuel Peppel, Mr. Samuel Ortaggio, Mrs. Mary Noecker, Mr. Earl Auxter, Jim Watson.

Thus endeth the 1959 Delphian. Its successes, great or small, are due to the devoted service of our faculty advisor and of many staff members who have spent innumerable hours toward its completion. We have worked faithfully in the hope that this Delphian will live as a true record of Central High School in the present and that it will become a part of the past which acclaims the future.
